Pro Bono Publico!

IF YOU LOVE YOUR COUNTRY, encourage Home Productions. Why will you send abroad for wretchedly spurious articles when you can have the good and true and beautiful of Oregon material and Oregon workmanship close at your very doors!

Why impoverish your country and its mechanics by the calculations of Prejudice, or by parsimonious misdirection?

ARM CHAIRS, CRADLES,
CRIBS, SAFES,

Other articles, too numerous to mention, either on hand or made to order.

The superscribers would modestly infer to the most gracious public of the State of Oregon that they would gladly exchange any or all of the above articles for "READY MONEY," or any other article of commerce that will by the conveyance give pleasurable sensations to the high contracting parties.

The life-spring of trade, "READY CASH,"
No matter in which way we view it,
Enables us onward to dash,
And therefore we mean to stick to it.

THURSDAY MORNING SEPT 10 1863

The Work of the Sanitary Commission.

Rev Dr Anderson of San Francisco who visited the battle field of Gettysburg in company with Dr Bellows and Dr Agnew of the Sanitary Commission, has written a letter which is published in the Bulletin from which we make an extract, that cannot fail to be of interest to those who have generously contributed for the relief of suffering soldiers, showing as it does how the donations made are used and the practical benefit thereby accomplished, as well as the necessity of further liberality

No tongue will [illegible] the amount of good done at Gettysburg by the Sanitary and Christian Commissions With the operations [illegible] I was more familiar I had no conception [illegible] of the vastness of the operations of that Sanitary Commission for the benefit of the wounded and sick [illegible] supplies [illegible] delicacies and clothing [illegible] and transportation [illegible] by letters of the sick [illegible] wounded [illegible] the names of the killed in battle and of the sick and dead in hospitals [illegible] their place of burial advises absent friends where the [illegible] or where the sick are lying When a battle has been fought the agents of the Commission are [illegible] with their own wagons laden with all [illegible] wounded and dying [illegible]

My California friends you know not what you have done You have dried the tears and wiped the cold sweat from the brows of thousands who will [illegible] forever call you blessed And the work is not half done yet Go on with it Add another half million to your former gift Let Starr King and Billings and Thompkins and all who can plead for wounded and dying men [illegible] and let the next $100 000 come on at once

I will not describe the battle-field The subject is too painful The hundreds of wagons [illegible] shattered muskets and broken sabres the hundreds [illegible] dead and with their harness yet on [illegible] there the still unburied body of a dead rebel, swollen and black and fearfully ghastly—let the whole scene pass I cannot bear to think much less to write about it

Military Operations in Eastern Oregon

We take pleasure in publishing the following letter from a well informed correspondent giving much interesting information in regard to army affairs in this district, and affording proof of the vigilant care exercised by Gen Alvord in taking measures for the protection of the frontier with the force at his command.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

Thinking perhaps that some report of the movements of the military force on our Eastern frontier would be interesting to your readers, I will give you a short account as far as heard from, of the operations of the summer between the great bend of the Snake river and the Rocky Mountains

On the 1st day of June, Major Lugenbeel left Fort Vancouver for the Boise country, with instructions to select a location and establish a Government post at some eligible position near the emigrant trail, and in the vicinity of Boise river He was reinforced at Fort Dalles by a detachment of company A, of the Oregon Volunteers, under Lieut. Hobart, and at Fort Walla Walla by a company of Infantry under Captain Mason. The Major reached Boise and located the post on the 2d of July The point selected is on the right bank of Boise river, forty miles from its confluence with the Snake river, and also about forty miles above the location of old Fort Boise.

After the treaty with the Nez Perces Indians was concluded in June, Col Maury, with three companies of his regiment, (1st O V,) broke his camp at Fort Lapwai, marched up the Little Salmon, and at the head of his command, made his way by trails over the mountains to the Boise river There it was his intention, under instructions from Gen Alvord, to perfect his arrangements and to receive reinforcements for his expedition against the Snake Indians

By the 23d of July his preparations were completed, by a reinforcement of two companies of W T Infantry and the arrival of his transportation and commissary stores This force however, was not at all adequate to the task of waging a determined war against the hostile savages, for though he had with him nominally three companies of Cavalry and two Infantry, nearly all of them and especially the Infantry were [illegible] The companies with him are company A, 1st Oregon Cavalry, Captain E S Harris since resigned. 2d Lieutenant Pepoon and about fifty men Company D Cavalry, Captain John M Drake 1st Lieut J M McCall 2d Lieut D. Waymire and about sixty men Company E, Capt Currey and Lieutenants Apperson and Currey, and about fifty five men The two companies of Infantry number about sixty men thus giving a force of about 210 with which to guard supplies, defend the emigrant trail and fight the Indians

On the 8th of August Col Maury's command reached Camp [illegible] On each side of the trail he had kept [illegible] scouting parties on the lookout for hostile Indians but up to the latest intelligence has been unsuccessful in discovering any At Salmon Falls on Snake river a small party of Cavalry, under Captain Currey discovered a number of lodges containing about 100 Indians, who made such professions of friendship that he had not the heart to attack them He captured two of the leaders of the band and brought them into camp which was then sixty miles away The captured Indians reported that all the hostile Indians had gone across to the Eastern side of the mountains, and that all who were to be found now near the emigrant trail were remarkably "good Indians"

FRONTIER

THE DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS OF LORD LYONS —Let it never be forgotten that in the dark est hour of this civil war when the rebels were apparently flushed with triumph and their foreign friends were exulting over the prospect of the downfall of democratic institutions on this continent certain leaders of the copperhead party were guilty of the ineffable meanness and treachery of soliciting Lord Lyons the British Minister the representative of our bitterest foes abroad to use his influence in behalf of an intervention designed to secure victory for Jeff Davis They were willing to gratify their malignant partisan hatred of the Government to call in the aid of the British enemies of the Republic, and put our beloved country at the mercy of foreign dictation Lord Lyons, for obvious reasons does not reveal the names of the conspirators, but he says they were "leaders of the democratic party," and it was in the city of New York that this interview was held This letter containing this story of copperhead treachery will live in the memory of the patriotic people of this country, and brand the copperheads as the meanest and most anti American faction that ever cursed this Republic Every reason that kindles the hatred of the American people against the ruling aristocracy of England should tell with equal force against the copperhead sycophants of that power in our midst Remember that the men who sought this secret alliance with the avowed enemies of democracy and America were leaders of the democratic party, and beware of the wiles of traitors —Sac Union

INHUMAN ATROCITIES BY MISSOURI GUERRILLAS —Gen F B Brown, who commands the central district of Missouri has communicated an authentic statement of recent rebel atrocities in the town of Florence Morgan county for publication Were it not informed by indisputable proof, the story of these infernal atrocities would really surpass belief The guerrillas about fifty strong led by a fellow named Matt Smith, entered the town shortly after daylight and compelled all the inhabitants, large and small, to collect in the public square to prevent any news of their doings being sent to a neighboring military post Having drank copiously of whisky and robbed the stores they ordered the male prisoners over eighteen years of age to fall into line All who took the oath of allegiance to the Southern Confederacy were then released, all who refused were immediately shot down in the presence of their female relatives, and in despite of the screams of the latter Nine men were thus butchered The rebels then loaded their horses with plunder, and wound up their infernal proceedings by burning several houses and preventing the owners from extinguishing the fires Then they retired Such are the horrors of war brought to our doors by the infernal guerrillas licensed by Jeff Davis Is it strange that our soldiers when hunting such wretches as these decline to take any prisoners but shoot them down like mad dogs? It was for pursuing a severe course towards such villains that Gen Ben Loan was lately removed from command in Central Missouri —St Louis cor Alta.

SIGEL ON CITIZENSHIP —At the annual session of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association, held at Reading, Gen Sigel was present and made a short speech, which we find reported in the Philadelphia papers His remarks are noticeable particularly for the following sentiments

"Gentlemen, our public schools are, I believe, the greatest original work of the American people I say our public schools because I tried since I have come here an exile from a tyrannical country, not only to become by my papers, but in my soul and heart an American citizen I have struggled hard to gain a knowledge of the American people and their institutions I have, for ten years, lived among you I have seen your noble and lofty qualities of character I like to be here, and I hope I will die here I have three children, I hope they will grow up in entire devotion to this country, and may they, if necessary, defend the institutions of this country with their lives Therefore you will allow me to say 'our' public schools "

That ought to be the feeling of every naturalized citizen—Americanism not Irishism or Germanism, is the sure cure for "nativeism" or "know nothingism "

THE INTERVIEW BETWEEN ROSECRANS AND VALLANDIGHAM —The Dayton Journal relates the following, apropos of Vallandigham:

"When Vallandigham arrived at Murfreesboro Gen Rosecrans went to see him 'I wanted to see you' said the General—'I wanted to see you, Vallandigham, to see whether you had a rascal's face' Then changing the subject rather abruptly—and bringing down the fore finger of his right hand in that rapier like style which is a conspicuous feature of his gesticulation when he is in terrible earnest—he said 'Vallandigham don't you come back here If you —do—Vallandigham—I'll be d—d—and may God forgive me for the expression—I'll be d—d if I don't hang you!' People will be pleased to remember that the General says he "never blasphemes, but he sometimes swears""

The surrender of Vicksburg on the 4th of July, a fact the rebels denied as long as they could but have been obliged to concede on the publication of the official correspondence is a sore mortification to them The Richmond Examiner, of a recent date says

'The particular day chosen for the surrender was, at least, ungracious Better that it should have been the 3d or 5th of July Why should the calamity have been aggravated to the South by such a selection of the day on which it should take place?'

The remembrance of the 4th of July does not please our Southern brethren

POOR OLD BUCK —The editor of the Stanton (Pa) Republican says

We saw a curious embellishment the other day—a five dollar bill on the [illegible]ville Bank which contains in one corner a vignette of James Buchanan Some person had bunged his eyes with red ink drawn a gallows above his head from which a rope was suspended that went round his neck and then lettered his head with the word Judas This is but one of hundreds The bank has had to call in all its issues with that portrait on it so unmistakable are the manifestations of popular indignation against the man who might have had the will or the pluck have nipped this rebellion in the bud, as Jackson did before him

ONE REASON —The Fort Wayne (Ind) Gazette says that a Copperhead in that place declares that he is opposed to the draft because every Democrat who goes to the army and lives to return home is sure to come back an Abolitionist

Additional Eastern News

From the Sacramento Union we have the following additional news

NEW YORK, Sept 2 —A large number of conscripts left yesterday for the Army of the Potomac Considerable difficulty existed with some substitutes who required almost an equal number of men to guard them but stringent orders, together with recent executions have had a beneficial effect and causes of complaint are now less frequent

NEW YORK, Sept 2 —The Times' special dispatch says The best attainable information locates General Lee in Richmond His army is scattered from Corbyn's bridge on the west to Port Royal on the Rappahannock on the east and south as far as the line of the Virginia Central Railroad The troops are thus widely scattered to facilitate subsistence Gen Ewell has the left A P Hill the center lying on the railroad from Culpepper to Orange Court House while Longstreet holds the extreme right, occupying the line of the Richmond and Fredericksburg Railroad

Kilpatrick's body guard has had a hunting guerrillas in our rear for the last three days with great success

Deserters continue to come into our lines Nine of these joined our army After adding horses and committing other depredations they again rejoined their old commands

The Tribune's special dispatch says Lieutenant Burgess, with [illegible] mounted rangers went on a reconnoissance on Monday August 31st and yesterday morning near Leesburg were attacked by about 200 rebel cavalry and forced to retreat

A report has been received that Imboden's command, numbering 300 men, attempted to cross the Potomac at Nolan's ferry, but were prevented by infantry stationed there

It is also rumored that a force of 5 000 or 6 000 rebels are preparing to attempt to cross below that point Several pieces of artillery were sent down to prevent such an attempt being successful Our cavalry has also been sent out and can hardly fail to check them

It is thought here by the military authorities that Lee must commence offensive operations this month or disband his army It is believed that to this end he is concentrating another large army for invasion which is his only hope To meet this expected movement the Army of the Potomac is on the alert

Gen Meigs, Quartermaster General has been ordered to the Army of the Potomac, Rumor says that both he and Surgeon General Hammond are in disfavor

CHICAGO, Sept 2 —There is no confirmation of the report that part of Lee's army crossed at Port Conway It is probably not true, as the reported crossing is located at a point accessible to the gunboats, which would seriously interfere with any such movement

Frankfort (Ky), September 1st Governor Bramlette was inaugurated to day His inaugural contends that the revolted States did not change their status by rebelling, that all that is necessary for them to do is to return to their fealty and take their position as States and that the rebellion did not remit them to the Territorial status He says We have now, and will have when the rebellion closes, the identical Constitution which the extremists seek to destroy It is not a restored Union—not a reconstructed Union—that Kentucky desired, but a preserved Union and restored peace, on a constitutional basis The Governor strongly objected to arming negro regiments, and asked, 'What is to be done with such soldiers at the close of the war?' He points to the recent election as a proof that Kentucky will not fraternize with the rebellion, either openly or covertly and declares that Kentucky ever has been, now is and always will remain loyal to the Government of our fathers

Chicago, September 2d. — The Richmond Enquirer of Friday August 28th, intimates that the retaliation threatened by Beauregard, if any more shells are thrown into Charleston, will be to move the Federal prisoners from Libby Prison and Belle Isle, distribute them in various parts of the city of Charleston, and then inform Gilmore that Charleston invites his shells

A correspondent of the Augusta (Ga) Chronicle writes that Fort Wagner cannot be approached by mining He says the island is all sand on the surface and then comes water, at a depth of from four to six feet Mining is, therefore, out of the question, unless the work is arched by brick or wood To do this, if at all practicable, would require from six to twelve months, and then the result would be a failure, because all approaches would end or open in the moat surrounding Wagner, where there is from six to eight feet of water

The Washington Republican has a dispatch dated Stevenson (Ala), 11 A M, Aug 31, saying Rosecrans army is nearly all across the Tennessee and Chattanooga will be invested A heavy cavalry and artillery force has gone in the direction of Dalton Junction, on the Western Atlantic Railroad If this road should be cut, and it undoubtedly will be, it would greatly facilitate Rosecrans' operations because it would destroy Bragg's entire southern communication and leave him none but the Tennessee and Georgia road to Kingston and Knoxville It was reported yesterday that a portion of Bragg's force was making a demonstration for a movement northwestward toward Kingston to reinforce Forrest and probably attack Burnside

NEW YORK, Sept 2 —The Herald's special dispatches say, We are without any later information than that already published in regard to operations at Charleston Gilmore and Dahlgren report everything progressing favorably

GEN MEADE AND THE U S CHRISTIAN COMMISSION —The following letter from Gen Meade has been lately published

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC,

NEW YORK, Sept 4 The Times Washington dispatch says it has been ordered that the premium of two dollars paid for each accepted recruit for the regular army shall also be paid for accepted negro recruits

The Times Washington dispatch says distinguished officers in the Army of the Potomac have sent word that Lee has not given the slightest indications of a purpose to move his forces [illegible] the [illegible] is waiting the result of the [illegible] Rosecrans Gilmore and Burnside [illegible] opinion prevails among the most intelligent [illegible] that [illegible] will propose terms and [illegible] the war [illegible]

NEW YORK Sept 4 —The following extraordinary statement is addressed to the Times in which paper it appears this morning

PHILADELPHIA Sept 1 —Having just returned from Richmond where I have been for nearly a year I wish you would give the following publicity in your invaluable paper I have during my stay in Richmond made the acquaintance of J Lane, Captain in the Confederate army [illegible] Oregon who is well informed and who assured me that the late invasion of the North by Lee and Morgan was [illegible] earnest and [illegible] representations of that true Southern man Vallandigham, who assured Jeff Davis and his cabinet that the North was ripe for revolution and only waited for the appearance of a Southern army to proclaim for Jeff Davis and forsake Lincoln Vallandigham's representations were corroborated to by the tone of the majority of the Northern journals which surely would not denounce the Administration [illegible] except by an assurance of having the popular feeling in their favor

CINCINNATI Sept 4—Quite an excitement was created at Marion last night by the arrest by the military authority of two men for the murder of Lieut Waterman The civil authorities demanded their trial upon a writ of habeas corpus but the Provost Marshal under orders from Gen Cox refused to surrender them

The militia have been called into requisition to take them by force

A dispatch from Rosecrans' army reports all quiet From forty to fifty deserters come into our lines daily since the army crossed the river The bridge at Bridgeport has been repaired Trains are crossing regularly The country south of the river is very rough and the roads bad A reconnoissance is sent out daily A rebel force still occupies a strong position Deserters think that there will be no fight at Chattanooga

NEW YORK Sept 4 —Neither the Navy nor War Departments have any advices from Charleston The Washington Star of this evening says There is no reason whatever to anticipate the fall of Charleston before the advent of the season in which our army can venture off Morris Island to points near the city without risking a greater loss from the climate than from the enemy's guns Our present positions there are evidently preliminary to those which are to follow the advent of that season, and are necessarily slow because the point of sacrificing as few of our troops as possible is being wisely kept in view

LEAVENWORTH, Sept 3 —From Albuquerque, New Mexico, papers of August 29th we learn that Col Kit Carson with a part of the First New Mexican regiment had a fight with the Navajo Indians, between [illegible] and Fort Canby The Indians were defeated with a loss of fifteen killed twenty wounded and many prisoners

City Council.—The Common Council met last night. Present—Messrs. Monastes, Knott, Austin, Watson, Saxer and Dodge. The President being absent, Councilman Saxer was elected President pro tem.

The petition of Sherry Ross, for extension of thirty days' time of the street for building purposes, was granted.

The petition of P. Raleigh, to use half of Stark street for building purposes, was granted.

The committee on streets and public property reported in favor of purchasing parts of lots one and two, in block nineteen, of James Bark, for the use of Columbia Engine Co. No. 3. Report adopted.

The resolution accompanying the report to draw a warrant for the sum of $2,000, was lost.

The bill of J. L. Parrish & Co., for the sum of $20, was laid on the table.

The following bills were ordered paid: Wasserman & Co., two months' rent, $80; John McBirney, $2; O. Risley, $20; sundry bills of laborers, $28 50; Harbaugh & Stitzel, $65; Daily Times, $17; W. B Clark, $10.

Resolution instructing City Marshal to deliver the street lamps to A. M. & L. M. Starr for repair, and then replace them on the lamp posts, was lost. Yeas, 3; nays, 3.

Resolution tendering the Gas Light Company the sum of $40 33, in full payment, was carried.

Committee on fire and water reported that Messrs. Simms & Rhodes had completed the first section on their cistern contract, and that they now be paid $280 for the same. Report adopted. Adjourned.

Sweet Potatoes.—Mr. Philip Ritz, of Walla Walla, now here on his way to the State Fair, showed us yesterday a box of good sized and fine looking sweet potatoes, of the Nansemond variety. Mr. R. assures us that the yield of these is nearly or quite double that of any common potatoe. The plants were set about the 10th of May. The land in Walla Walla valley proves to be well adapted to their growth. Mr. Ritz will have plants to dispose of next spring.

Treasure.—About $10,000 in gold dust arrived on the Julia last night. An unusually small shipment.

County Commissioners.—The Board of County Commissioners will meet this morning at ten o'clock, for the transaction of business.

Recorder's Court.—R. J. Waldron was taken before the Recorder yesterday and fined five dollars and costs for being drunk and disorderly. Paid.

Columbia Bar Pilots.—The Pilot Commissioners have appointed Alfred Crosby, Wm. Metzger, A. C. Farnsworth and Charles Edwards, as pilots for the Columbia River Bar, according to an act of the Legislature of Oregon.

Theatrical.—The great drama of "The Rag Picker of Paris" will be performed to-night, at the Willamette theatre. This piece gave general satisfaction at a former representation, and will without doubt draw an audience again. The "Siamese Twins" will conclude the performance. The latter piece is some thing new and amusing.

The Immigration.—During the last week we have noticed the arrival of but two immigrant wagons. It is probable that quite a number of immigrants have come down by the boats, but how many we have been unable to ascertain. A company of one hundred and forty German immigrants are now on the way down, and in all probability will reach here in a day or two. These latter all intend to settle somewhere near Oregon City, where there has been a German settlement for several years. It has become an established fact that the immigration for the present year is small. Advices received early in the spring led us to expect a large accession to our population from this source, but in this respect we are disappointed.—Mountaineer.

The Turkish Government is adopting all possible means to stimulate the growth of cotton in that country.

Notice.—The Ladies' Oregon Sanitary Aid Society will meet at the M. E. Church, in this city, Friday, Sept. 11th, at two o'clock P. M. A full attendance is very desirable, as [illegible] of importance is to be transacted.

Counsel to Girl.

Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
Old Time is still a-flying;
And this same flower that smiles to-day
To-morrow will be dying.

The glorious lamp of Heaven, the Sun,
The higher he's a-getting,
The sooner will his race be run,
And nearer he's to setting.

That age is best which is the first,
When youth and blood are warmer;
But being spent, the worse and worst
Times will succeed the former.

Then be not coy, but use your time;
And while ye may, go marry;
For having lost but once your prime,
You may forever tarry.

HOW A WAG TRICKED THE PARSONS.—A late Frazer's Magazine contains an article about Scottish parsons of the writer's recollections, in the course of which he tells the following anecdote of a trick Judge Robertson played upon the Synod of Cleishmaclaver on their way to the General Assembly of the Scotch Kirk:

The brethren had started by coach at an early hour, and had traveled some twenty miles before they reached the inn where breakfast was prepared for them. The keen air of our northern hills sharpens the appetite; and when the brethren drove up to the inn they were almost famished with hunger. "Now, gentlemen, just ten minutes for breakfast," said the coachman, as he entered the landlady's snug little parlor to have his own. Ten minutes! The time was short, so they must make the most of it. They rushed into the room where the breakfast was spread, and there, basking his ample person before the fire, stood a portly gentleman, dressed somewhat like a dignitary of the Church of England. Their appetite was keener than their curiosity, so they scarcely looked at the stranger, but concentrated their whole attention on the viands.

Half-way in the air, before the morsel had reached their lips, their hands were arrested by a sudden cry of "Stop!" It was the supposed Dean or Bishop.

"Good heavens, gentlemen!" he exclaimed, "have you so far forgotten your sacred profession as to partake of food without invoking a blessing?"

The brethren looked like schoolboys detected in some flagrant fault; but before they had time to remonstrate or explain, the same voice exclaimed, in a tone which enforced obedience: "Let us pray."

They instantly sprang to their feet and assumed the attitude of decorous devotion, while the stranger offered up a prayer which they themselves admitted was superior in unction and expression to those of Dr. Drawl-it-out himself. He had only one fault; he did not know when to stop. The minutes rolled rapidly away, but the stream of fervent supplication flowed on without a break. They had a terrible struggle—the brethren had—as they closed one eye in devotion and ogled the savory viands with the other; but whenever a hand approached it drew back before the stern glance of the stranger, which seemed to understand them all. The sufferings of Tantalus were nothing to the sufferings of the deputations from the Synod of Cleishmaclaver; but all things must come to an end. "Time is up, gentlemen," said the coachman, opening the door and wiping his mouth with the air of a man who had enjoyed his breakfast.

The appearance of the coachman and the sound of his familiar voice broke the spell but there was no time to be lost; the horses were shaking their heads and pawing the ground in their impatience to start; so they had to take their seats and turn breakfast and dinner into one. "Was that the Bishop of D——?" said one of the famished brethren. "That the Bishop of D——?" said the coachman, contemptuously. "Why, that was Lord P——, the maddest wag in all the kingdom." The brethren said nothing, but chewed the cud of sweet but bitter fancy, till they reached the next halting place, where they got something more substantial to chew. Somehow the story oozed out, and the trick played on the members of the Synod of Cleishmaclaver called forth many a hearty laugh at the Lord High Commissioner's levees, and seriously affected the gravity of the Moderator himself.

TRADING WITH YANKEES.—The Richmond Enquirer has discovered a new annoyance. In its issue of the 6th August it says:

A practice as humiliating to good citizens as it is disgraceful to those who encourage it, has lately become one of the most eager passions of lucre-loving, lilly-livered men in our midst. No Yankee can escape them; they actually scent their prey when it is a hundred miles away, and the depot by which it arrives is besieged accordingly. Yesterday morning, upon the arrival of the Central cars, bringing over seven hundred Yankees, some ten or fifteen of these traders met them at the depot and begged for greenbacks in exchange for Confederate notes, giving as high as six dollars in the latter for one in the former. Such men deserve to be hung. They are worse than traitors, meaner than cowards, baser than brutes. Every man who trades at all in these so-called "greenbacks" should be tried as an enemy to his country. It is clearly a violation of patriotic duty and of national usage, and deserves commensurate punishment at the hands of the Government.

FORT SUMTER HAS FALLEN.—When that valorous paladin Beauregard captured this fort, Jeff. Davis was so pleased that he frothed over in the following couplet:

> "With mortar, paixhan and petard,
> We send old Abe our Beauregard."

"Old Abe" can have a chance now to reply as follows:

> With shriek of shell and paixhan roar,
> We send to Jeff our brave Gilmore.

South Carolina having brought desolation upon the country has heretofore not been a sufferer by the war that she has created. She will soon have an opportunity of realizing what war means.

> "Thus perish every wicked State
> That ran the wicked race she ran,
> Strong but in ill, and only great
> In outrage against God and man."

It is said that the people of Maine are about to tap the pine trees in that State with a view to make rosin, which they think can be made as well in that region as in the Carolinas. Thus prop after prop of the South threatens to tumble out.

ANECDOTE OF GEN. LOGAN.—When he was a colonel at the commencement of the war, six companies of his corps becoming aggrieved at something, stacked arms and refused to do duty. The adjutant informed Colonel Logan of the difficulty, who, on hearing it exclaimed: "Stacked arms! The devil they have?" Then pausing a minute as he considered the emergency, he continued: "Well, adjutant, I'll give 'em enough of stacking arms." Accordingly he formed the remaining four companies in line with loaded muskets and stood them over the malcontents, whom he compelled to stack and unstack arms for twelve hours. They didn't want to stack arms after that without special orders.

The total public debt of the United States on July 1, shown by the books of the Treasury Department, is $1,097,274,366. In the Secretary's report of last December he estimated that by this time the public debt would reach $1,122,297,403. The expenditures, however, have been slightly less than the Secretary anticipated, or rather the national revenue has been somewhat greater, and the public debt is therefore less by $25,023,037 than the Secretary estimated last December.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 39.]

AN ACT to divide the State of Michigan into two judicial districts, and to provide for holding the district and circuit courts therein.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Michigan be and the same is hereby divided into two judicial districts in the following manner, namely:

THE EASTERN AND WESTERN DISTRICTS.

The western district shall embrace all the territory and waters within the following boundaries, to wit: Commencing at the southwest corner of Hillsdale county, in the State of Michigan, and running from thence north, on the west line of said county, to the south line of Calhoun county; thence east, on the south line thereof, to the southeast corner of said last-named county; thence north, on the east boundary of said county, to the south line of Eaton county; thence east, on said south line, to the southeast corner of Eaton county; thence north, on the east boundary of Eaton county, to the south line of Clinton county; thence west, on the south boundary of said county, to the southwest corner thereof; thence north, on the west boundary of Clinton and Gratiot counties, to the south boundary of Isabella county; thence west, on its south boundary, to the southwest corner of said last-named county; thence north, on the west line of Isabella and Clare counties, to the south boundary of Missaukee county; thence east, on the south boundary, to the southeast corner of Missaukee county; thence north, on the east line of Missaukee, Kalcaska and Antrim counties, to the south boundary of Emmet county; thence east to the south-east corner of Emmet county; thence north, on the east boundary of Emmet county, to the Straits of Mackinac; thence northwesterly across said straits; thence westerly, in a direct line, to a point on the shore of Lake Michigan where the north boundary of Delta county reaches Lake Michigan; thence west on the north line of Delta county, to the northwest corner of said Delta county; thence south, on the west boundary of said county, to the dividing line between the States of Michigan and Wisconsin in Green Bay; thence northeasterly, on the said dividing line, into Lake Michigan; and thence southerly, through Lake Michigan, to the southwest corner of the State of Michigan, on a line which will include within said boundaries the waters of Lake Michigan within the admiralty jurisdiction of the State of Michigan; thence east, on the south boundary of the State of Michigan, to the intersection of the west line of Hillsdale county. The judicial centre of which district shall be at Grand Rapids, in the county of Kent, where the courts of said district shall be held. The eastern district shall embrace all the other waters of said State not embraced within the foregoing boundaries of said western district. The judicial centre of said eastern district shall be at Detroit, in the county of Wayne, where the courts of said district shall be held.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be two terms of the circuit and district courts begun and held in each of said districts, to wit: At the city of Detroit, for the eastern district, on the first Tuesday in June, November and March in each year; and at the city of Grand Rapids, for the western district, on the third Monday of May and third Monday of October in each year. And the said courts are hereby authorized to hold adjourned terms when the business before the courts shall, in the opinion of the court, require it.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all suits and other proceedings, of whatever name or nature, now pending in the circuit or district courts of the United States for the district of Michigan, shall be tried and disposed of in the circuit and district courts respectively for the eastern district of Michigan, in the same manner as the same would have been in case said State had not been divided into two districts; and for that purpose the jurisdiction is reserved to said courts in the eastern district. And the clerk of the circuit and district courts for the present district of Michigan shall remain the records and files of the said circuit and district courts to the city of Detroit, and do and perform all the duties appertaining to his office within the eastern district; and all process and other proceedings taken or issued, or made returnable to the circuit or district court for the present district of Michigan, shall be returnable at the next term of the said courts, respectively, in the eastern district of Michigan.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That, upon the application of any party to any suit now pending which would have been commenced in the western district if this act had been in force before the commencement of such suit, the proper court may, and, if all parties consent, shall, order that the same be removed for further proceedings to the proper court for the western district; and thereupon the clerk shall transmit all the papers in the cause, with a transcript of the order of the removal to the clerk of the court to which the said suit shall be removed; and all further proceedings shall be had in said court as if the suit had been originally commenced therein.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the present judge of the district of Michigan be and he is hereby assigned to hold said courts in the eastern district of Michigan, and shall exercise the same jurisdiction and perform the same duties within said district as he now exercises and performs within his present district.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That final process upon any judgment or decree entered in the circuit or district court of the United States for the district of Michigan, and all other process for the enforcement of any order of said courts, respectively, in any cause now pending therein, except causes removed as hereinbefore provided, shall be issued from and made returnable to the proper court for the eastern district of Michigan, and may run and be executed by the marshal of said eastern district in any part of said State.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That there be appointed a district judge for the said western district of Michigan, who shall possess the same powers and do and perform all such duties in his district as are now enjoined on or in any wise appertaining to the present district judge for the district of Michigan; and the district judge of each district shall be entitled to the same compensation as by law is provided for the present judge of the district of Michigan.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That there be appointed one person as district attorney, and one person as marshal for said western district, whose terms of appointment and service, as well as duties and emoluments, shall be the same with those respectively appertaining to the said office in the district of Michigan. And said marshal shall give the same bond that other marshals are required to give, to be approved and recorded as now directed by law: Provided, That the present district attorney of the district of Michigan shall be the district attorney of the eastern district and retain the charge of all suits already commenced until final termination, unless the President of the United States shall otherwise direct, and the present marshal of the district of Michigan shall be the marshal of the eastern district, during their respective official terms.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all suits hereafter to be brought in either of said courts not of a local nature, shall be brought in the court of the district where the defendant resides; but if there be more than one defendant, and they reside in different districts, the plaintiff may sue in either and send a duplicate writ against the defendants, directed to the marshal of the other district, on which an endorsement shall be made that the writ thus sent is a copy of a writ sued out of the court of the proper district; and the said writs, when executed and returned into the office from whence they issued, shall constitute one suit, and be proceeded in accordingly.

Approved, February 24, 1863.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS,
and
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDI

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOL

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
